Recruitment for operational phase of Olive Downs commences

Pembroke Resources, in partnership with our key contractors, is pleased to announce the commencement of the recruitment process for the Olive Downs Complex operational phase.

The Olive Downs Complex will be a major new employer in the region, expected to generate up to 1,000 jobs across a broad range of roles in the first stage of operations.

Barry Tudor, Chairman and CEO of Pembroke Resources said, "Olive Downs is committed to being a strong supporter of the regional communities in which it operates, as evidenced by our commitment to a range of "Live Local" initiatives.

The Olive Downs Complex presents workers a genuine choice to live locally. This choice, combined with the ability to live regionally or commute, will ensure that the complex can attract and retain the very best skills needed for this state of the art mine."

Positions available will include the exciting new field of automation providing opportunity for upskilling of local workforce. Current opportunities can be found here www.seek.com.au
